

—Jean Charton—

Jean Chartron
21190 PUILIGNY-MONTRACHET - FRANCE

Initially this wine show flashes of light grey that reveal a complex nose mixing jasmin, star of Bethlehem and vetiver. In the mouth, the initially broad attack, narrows to a fine tip on the tongue. At the finish, the wine is saline and mouth-watering, reminding you that you can leave this wine to age in the cellar for many years.

To be served : from 2023 until 2033 at 13~15C°